

Modality Review:

I will endeavor to use Occam's Razor: "The simplest solution is most likely the right one" and The Great Detectives Credo: "When other contingencies fail... whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth".

(See June article for more details on each modality)

Now I will continue to present a few experiences I had that led me to believe that there is more than one reality or "Time Space Continuum" (TSC) that we are consciously experiencing. My true events may trigger a remembrance of your own whereby you may also conclude that we are living in a more complex set of realities than you previously thought.

However... first a Zen story that is thousands of years old:

The Chinese Farmer:

One day his horse runs away. And his neighbor comes over and says, to commiserate, "I'm so sorry about your horse." And the farmer says "Who Knows What's Good or Bad?" The neighbor is confused because this is clearly terrible. The horse is the most valuable thing he owns.

But the horse comes back the next day and he brings with him 12 feral horses. The neighbor comes back over to celebrate, "Congratulations on your great fortune!" And the farmer replies again: "Who Knows What's Good or Bad?"

And the next day the farmer's son is taming one of the wild horses and he's thrown and breaks his leg. The neighbor comes back over, "I'm so sorry about your son." The farmer repeats again: "Who Knows What's Good or Bad?"

Sure enough, the next day the army comes through their village and is conscripting able-bodied young men to go and fight in war, but the son is spared because of his broken leg. And this story can go on and on like that...

Good. Bad. Who knows?

Biblical Account:

1Thes 5:18a NKJV

I can't tell you how many times during my Christian Ministry I have had people come to me and sincerely ask:

“I wish I knew what God’s will is for my life?”

That was over twenty years ago and I still have people to this day sincerely asking me if there is any way I can help them discover what their human or galactic mission is. Sometimes it takes the form of a desire to discover more of who they are or how they could BE to start creating the deepest desires of their hearts.

To this day, I usually will share with them a Bible Scripture; especially if they are of the Christian faith. I explain that this is the only place in the 66 books of the Bible where it clearly state exactly what God’s will is for you:

“In everything give thanks...”

Of course two verses earlier in 1Thes 5:16 it says “Rejoice Always” which I believe will be the outcome of giving thanks for everything that is coming into your life.

This will usually start a conversation pertaining to things that happened to them that they considered “Bad” or they were a “Victim” of some bad luck or misfortune. Then we explore their beliefs pertaining to who or what God is and who is actually creating their individual reality and experiences. The conclusion is usually that since God is Everything and Everywhere and God is Good therefore we should “Give Thanks” for everything that IS or HAPPENS because it is ALL GOoD!

Those that do not come to this conclusion usually aren't ready to accept responsibility for the reality that they are creating and that's OK! I wasn't ready for decades to embrace the scientific fact that “Reality is observer created” and God and/in I AM the observer of my reality. That last sentence is not a misprint... please consider pondering it a while.

Here’s an affirmation that will inspire Positive Prophecies:

“When things don’t happen the way I planned or expected them, they ALLways turn out better!”

What about You

This may bring to your mind an experience or remembrance when you discovered you no longer judged people or things as being Good or Bad. You also may have past, present, or future memories where you asked “What is the Plan, Will, or Mission for my life.” It may be highly beneficial to re-visit those experiential memories and discover, re-evaluate, and integrate what you now know with those aspects of you that were curious because I have heard people say:

“Sometimes the things I wish I never had in my life... are the things I insisted on having.”

So... we Discover, Comprehend, and Know our True Divine Nature by the experiences we have chosen through relationships with People, Places, Things, and Multiple-Realities. We also experience Nothingness over a thousand times per second during the in-between states of conscious awareness’s. This will become common knowledge as we embrace more

E X P A N D E D States of BEingness.

Now... How can I experience that Divine Expansiveness?

Conclusion by David/LE

You actually are moving your Conscious Awareness into other already existing versions of yourself where that reality is more beneficial for your Spiritual Growth. In my case it really wasn’t just about helping others discover the will for their lives. It was about giving me an early glimpse of Infinite Possibilities and a curiosity that became a quest for more Understanding, Enlightenment, and Wisdom. Namaste – David/LE
