

Now I will continue to present a few experiences I had that led me to believe that there is more than one reality or “Time Space Continuum” (TSC) that we are consciously experiencing. My true events may trigger a remembrance of your own whereby you may also conclude that we are living in a more complex set of realities than you previously thought.

The Ninth Floor

Many years ago I decided to work with a man whom I had known for years. We established the parameters of our future relationship and I was to meet him Monday morning at 9:00 am at his new office. His company had half of the top floor of offices in a nine story building which was the second tallest structure in that township. We agreed I would wait for him in the Ninth Floor lobby.

I arrived a little early that day and, after parking in the garage, I started walking towards the building. I am naturally VERY observant, curious, and inquisitive with everything I perceive. I usually count, measure, or calculate almost everything ALL the time... it’s just become an enjoyable curiosity of mine and this day was no exception.

So... I counted the visible floors of the building while walking towards the entrance and I noticed that I could only see seven floors. I found this interesting. however my mind was really on the work I would be involved with so I gave it no additional attention. I entered the main lobby and saw two sets of elevators; two on my left and two on my right with a uniformed security guard standing in the middle.

Then I observed the door to the second elevator on my right was open and so I hurriedly entered. There was no one else in that elevator or behind me wanting to enter so I turned to my right towards the control panel to press the button for the Ninth Floor.

Oops... This elevator only went to the Seventh Floor as depicted by the standard and usual arrangement of buttons. The picture on the left is not the exact layout of the buttons however it was similar. The actual layout was three rows starting from the bottom left with 1, 2, & 3 and next was 4, 5, & 6 above that and then 7 was on the left above the 4 like this:

7

1 2 3

Well... I naturally thought that these two elevators on the right ONLY went as high as the Seventh Floors. So I stepped out of the elevator with my right foot and put my left hand on the door opening. While holding the elevator door open, I immediately saw the security guard turn to me so I asked him "Which elevators go to the Ninth Floor?" He responded with "They all do!"

Sooo... I stepped back into the elevator I just stepped out of and there was the same control panel only this time the configuration was like this:

7 8 9

4 5 6

1 2 3

I said "Thanks!" and pushed the button for the Ninth Floor and as the button lit up and the door closed I became curious as usual. "What was that all about?" was the thought that went through my mind as the elevator moved upward.

I heard in my mind an immediate response of "Oops!"

I thought "Who just said Oops?"

I heard an immediate response of "The Programmer!"

I thought "You reprogrammed the panel in this elevator to include the additional two buttons in the short time I stepped out of it?"

I heard an immediate response of "Time?... What do you mean by Time?"

My mind went to a movie scene near the end of "The Twelve Monkeys" where the actor Bruce Willis makes a phone call and the help he needs is already there and he is confused as to how could this happen so fast.

Now the elevator door opens to the Ninth floor lobby and I give this experience no additional thought. Afterwards, I carefully chose WHO I can tell this experience to because I prefer not to be put in a straight jacket and hauled off to a mental hospital and drugged up so I am NOT aware of these anomalies and the explanations that can follow. LOL

Recently I have been in contact with this "Programmer" and had many more discussions as to who he is, what is his name, what his mission is, and how I can be of assistance to him. More on that upon request. By-the-way... this programmer does NOT understand the Concept-of-Time as it is a mental construct conceived by beings desiring a realistic expression of their Spiritual Essence.

What about You

This may bring to your mind some times when you looked for something and then it mysteriously appeared or even disappeared for a time. It may also bring to remembrance an event that appears to have gaps, overlaps, or inconsistencies about linear time. Most people discard those moments as “Having a Senior Moment” or “Having a Brain hick-up”.

So... we Discover, Comprehend, and Know by experiences through relationships with People, Places, Things, and Multiple-Realities. This will become common knowledge as we develop Higher States of Awareness.

Now... back to what DOES NOT EXIST that WE Create

Quantum Understanding of TIME

Einstein said that reality is an illusion and if that is so... then time must also be an illusion because everything must exist in a unitized frame of “Space-Time” which I call a “Time Space Continuum” (TSC). Our consciousness conceives these units into reality by the need or desire for a physical experience. This is frequency driven by our brains (Neuron Bundles and Pathways) into a continuum that best serves our own individual and collective Spiritual Growth here in a 3d world. “Time” is the fourth dimension and it is almost infinite in our universe.

In the documentary movie “What the Bleep do we know”, the fact is presented that “Our Universe is blinking on-and-off” by Quantum Physicists. They also said that it led them to question “Where does it go when it’s not here?” The answer presented, was that there must be another universe where another version of them is asking “Where does it go when it’s not here?”

According to Richard Lighthouse, a former NASA engineer, “The physical universe literally blinks, off and on, more than 1 trillion times each second. It is called the Lighthouse Frequency, and it is calculated to be 1,101,361,642,963.57 Hz. This is not an estimate, it is a measured quantity.

Biblical Account

1Corinthians 15:52 NAS

“in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.”

The fundamentalist philosopher Jack Van Impe has defined the twinkling of an eye as "eleven one-hundredths of a second."

Atomus: In medieval time, the Latin Atomus meant "a twinkling of the eye," the smallest amount of time imaginable. Nowadays, it's defined as 1/376 minute or about 160 milliseconds.

A Blink lasts somewhere between 300 and 400 milliseconds or less than a half second.

A Twink (twinkle) is a reflected particle of light seen in the eye. Most of us have noticed a twinkle in someone's eye... that reflected light we observed traveled at 186,000 miles per second (speed of light).

At any rate... it is unnoticed by the conscious mind because of its speed. Those that remember the old 16 mm films knew they were watching a movie and not their perception of "Actual Reality". Then along came the TV with 525 lines per second in Europe and 625 lines per second in the USA. If you are seeing the European version... it flickers a bit allowing you to perceive that it was a film presentation. In the USA it is virtually unnoticeable.

I believe the Apocalypse or End Times is ALLways happening at the "Twinkling of an eye". We are experiencing the "Disappearance of the Universe" well over a thousand times per second and a new universe replaces the old one which better serves us all with what we NEED.

(I wrote an article about that a year ago and it's available... just ask me)

Now we have computer games and monitors that are vastly faster than all that. Do you know where I am going with this? There are many wise people that understand our reality is a pixilated version of Time & Space. These snapshots of reality are being manipulated into an energized physical playing field called "The Real World" by our collective consciousness. If you read this and are interested in talking about it just for fun or whatever... call me anytime at 979-278-3360 as I, David/LE, would be more than interested in sharing my insights with you.

Stay tuned for next month's article on the illusion of "Death" that we create.
